ARTWORK SPECS

ARTWORK SPECIFICATIONS & DELIVERY

The ad must be created in a recognised graphics program for a PC – which means either Adobe Photoshop, Adobe Illustrator, or Adobe InDesign. Files from other software cannot be accepted.

Ads are to be the correct size for the space booked.

FONTS

All fonts must be included with the job on disk. Alternatively outlines can be created.

If there are no fonts on the disk a substitute font will be automatically used and METER will not be responsible for incorrect copy re-flow.

LOGOS

Any vector based logos (i.e. EPS files) used in the ad must outline all fonts and the file saved as an EPS.

COLOUR

All colours should be in CMYK.

IMAGES

Rasterised images (i.e. photographs) should be 300dpi at actual size and saved as CMYK TIFF or EPS files.

TRIM SIZES

All ads must have a 5mm bleed on every side.

METER will not be responsible for incorrect trimming if the ad is not supplied with a bleed.

Full page – 210mm (w) x 297mm (h)

Half page – 210mm (w) x 148.5mm (h)

Quarter page – 105mm (w) x 148.5mm (h)

DELIVERY OF ARTWORK

Files can be emailed or posted:

Email: communications@nswtaxi.org.au

Phone: 02 9332 1266

You must phone to confirm receipt of artwork.

Files for email must be compressed (zip or JPEG) and cannot be more than 5MB in size.

If compressed files are more than 5MB, it is recommended that the ad be sent by courier or mail.

All posted or couriered material must include a colour printout of the advertisement.

If you do not meet these specifications, METER will not be responsible for your advertisement and extra charges may be incurred.

- 1) The Editorial Committee of METER considers all applications to advertise in METER or on: www.nswtaxi.org.au

Assessment criteria includes:

- a. Relevance to the readers of METER and those working in the Taxi Industry.
- b. Content of the advertisements against the regulations and policies governing the Industry.
- c. The position of the NSW Taxi Council within the Industry including on editorial or policy matters.
- d. Any agreements in regards to exclusivity or positioning of advertisements already made with existing advertisers.
  - e. The visuals of the advertisements in terms of the standards of METER – if inconsistent with the specifications or the overall look of the magazine.
- f. The volume of advertisements already confirmed in the magazine and the editorial content of proposed articles.

- 2) The Editorial Committee has the right to accept or reject applications to advertise without the necessity to give reasons.

- 3) Payment terms are 21 days upon drawing of an invoice from the NSW Taxi Council. Balances due over 60 days are subject to a 3% per month service charge.

- 4) The Editorial Committee reserves the right to enter specific agreements with advertisers including exclusivity arrangements or placement guarantees, and to enforce these agreements when negotiating with subsequent advertisers.

- 5) Cancellation of space reservations cannot be accepted after the closing date. This will result in either an advertisement being run or the space will be filled at the Editor's discretion but the advertiser will still be responsible for the advertising costs.

- 6) Deliberate attempts by the Advertiser to mislead readers into believing that an advertisement is the work of, or endorsed by the Editorial Committee of METER, are not permitted. The Publisher reserves the right to insert the word 'Advertisement' or other caveats into copy or artwork that, in the Publisher's opinion are designed to so mislead.

- 7) The Editorial Committee of METER reserves the right to amend the terms and conditions or the rate card at any time, and can only be held to previous details if an advance booking has already been made.
